Summary

Restricted department budget report for utilization, forecast spend, and variance risk.

Budget Utilization

- Engineering Q1 forecast is USD 735K against USD 700K allocation, creating a medium variance risk.
- Executive Q1 forecast is USD 360K against USD 320K allocation, creating a high variance risk.

Drivers

- Engineering variance is linked to staging capacity and reporting automation.
- Admin variance is linked to access-card modernization and regional supplier timing.

Review

- Finance reviews budget requests against committed spend, forecast spend, and revenue-risk mitigation.
